The Oxford Handbook of
COMPARATIVE
IMMIGRATION LAW

Cover art: "Cruzado #2" ("crossed") by Juan J. Hernández

University of Virginia School of Law
August 11–12, 2022

The Handbook will be dedicated to our late friend and colleague,
Tally Kritzman (1979–2022).

Tally's chapter on migrant inclusion and exclusion in Israel will be published posthumously. Her friend Anat Ben-Dor has graciously agreed to edit and bring the piece to fruition.

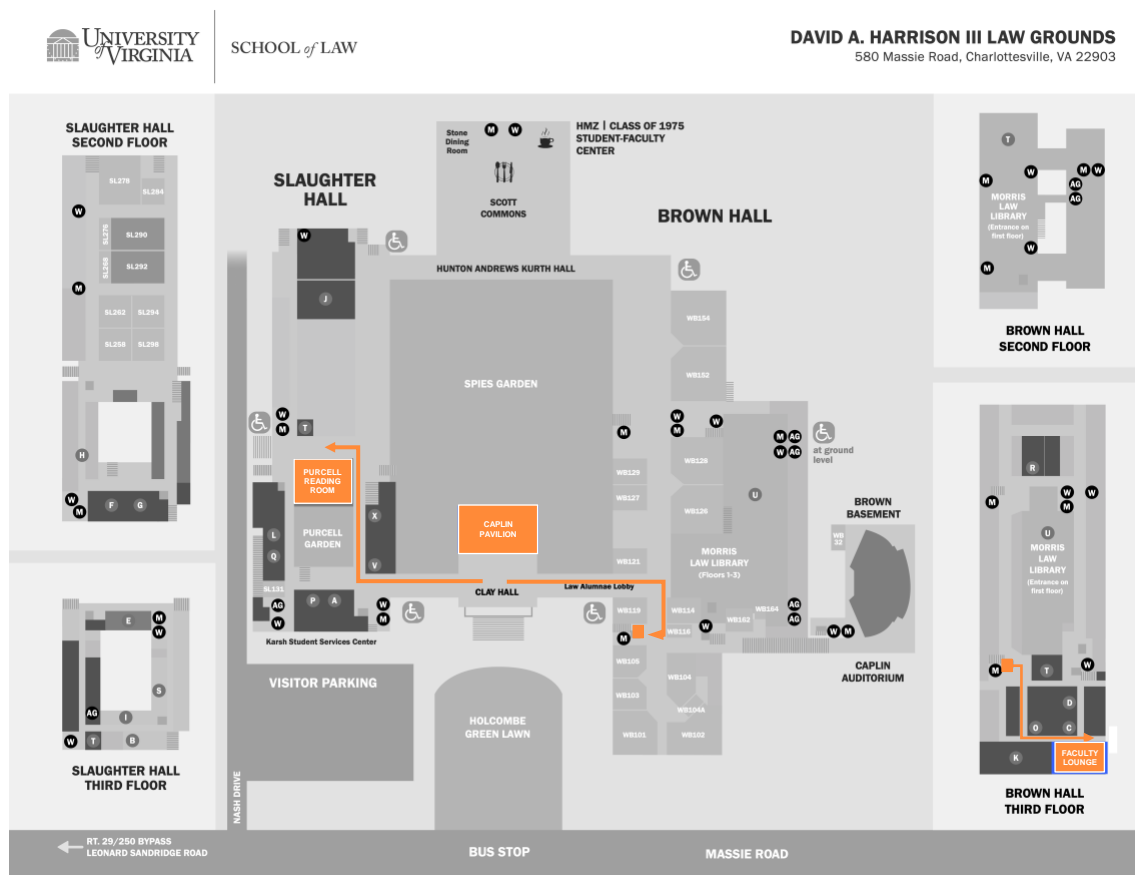

Tally was “a brilliant scholar and a tireless advocate for equality, justice, and humanity. ... She dedicated herself to promoting the rights and well-being of refugees and asylum seekers in Israel and beyond.... Tally was a superb, caring, and creative teacher who inspired her students to pursue social justice and cultivated their love of learning. Because of her, many will lead lives of purpose, meaning, and impact.”

-Salma Waheedi, Harvard Law School (May 18, 2022)

Law School Map

All workshop events will take place in Caplin Pavilion, the Faculty Lounge, and Purcell Reading Room.

Wi-Fi Access

To access the university's wi-fi, go to UVA Guest and follow the instructions.

Presentation Format

Please feel free to speak for 10 minutes or less about your chapter; you're welcome to use slides, but there's no expectation. For co-authored chapters, feel free to divide the time however you like.

If you're in person and using slides, please confer with a student assistant (Regina Zeng or Jacob Smith) in the morning or during the afternoon lunch break about loading them onto the presentation computers.

Each chapter presentation will be followed by 20-25 minutes of discussion/Q&A, though we may also cluster the presentations and Q&A, depending on the subject matter.

Reading the Chapters

You can read all of the available chapters on the website here. We have no standard expectation for how many and which you read, but we'd hope you'll at least review the ones in your cluster/panel and others that particularly interest you.

Zoom Info

Below are the Zoom links to each of the sessions. There are also links on the program agenda below. Note that the sessions will be video recorded solely for the contributors' private use on the UVA website.

Thursday, August 11:

- Panel A \(and welcome\) sessions \(Caplin Pavilion\)
- Panel B sessions \(Faculty Lounge\)

Friday, August 12:

- Panel A \(and concluding\) sessions \(Caplin Pavilion\)
- Panel B sessions \(Faculty Lounge\)

Please mute your microphone when you're not speaking. But, as you know, it can be discouraging for a contributor to present to an all-black screen! Please make an effort to leave your camera on as much as possible during the sessions.

Student Assistants

We're lucky to have the assistance of several UVA law students for the handbook and workshop. Rahima Ghaoori and Olivia Desilva are assisting with various tasks related to the handbook, including helping to update the website and copy-editing the chapters later in the process. (Pallavi Javor and Matthew Walchuck were serving in this role until they graduated this past spring.) Regina Zeng and Jacob Smith are assisting with logistics at the workshop.
